Advice can only be given in German

Living independently, taken care of and well-kept in one's own home

- as long as possible -

- You are looking for support and assistance, as you are in need of long-term care and/or suffer from dementia.
- You are taking care of someone and need assistance and some relief from care-giving duties.
- You have questions about, how you shall pay for long-term care at your home or in a care facility.
- You need information about day care and short-term care.
- You wish to live independently as long as possible in your own home and would like to know, whether it is possible and would be helpful to remodel your home.
- You are looking for information about how your house can be remodelled and finance for the same can be arranged.
- You wish to relocate to a barrier-free apartment or an apartment suitable for handicapped people or you are interested in "assisted living".

Does this sound like you?
Please get in touch with us in confidence.

It is of great importance to us at the long-term care and housing consulting office to help you find solutions for your problems.

We offer free, competent assistance without agents to people in need of long-term care, those who are threatened with care dependency, those who suffer from dementia and/or their relatives as well as old and disabled people.

We pursue our objective in a confidential conversation in the office or also at your home, depending on the personal situation and look for possible solutions, point out the financing options as well as help to realise them. In this manner, a suitable support package can be arranged for everyone on the lookout for help.
